INTRODUCTION

This stunning, contemporary property was built using stone, iron and glass. Newly built, it offers minimalistic, spacious accommodation with lovely large windows throughout, from which to enjoy the wonderful far-reaching views. These views are astonishing, taking in not only the scenery and landscape of this beautiful part of Tuscany with rolling hills of olive groves and fields, but also as far as the sea and the Tuscan archipelago with the islands of Giglio, Talamone and the Monte Argentario peninsula.

Conveniently situated mostly on one level it consists of a modern kitchen with island, guest bathroom, lovely spacious living area with large fireplace and 5 bedrooms en suite, all of which have access to the garden. On the lower level is a media room.

Land: there are around 27 Ha of land which include 1.5Ha of vineyard IGT in production, (Merlot, Vermentino and Petit Verdot) and 5 Ha of olive grove with ca. 1.000 olive trees planted in 2013, as well as a further 12 Ha of arable land and 7 Ha of forest.

There is a well on the land, suppling abundant water both for irrigation purposes and for the swimming pool.

Utilities include solar panels and fan coil central heating, LCD video intercom, wifi and satellite TV.
